Terms of Agreement:

1. This contract constitutes an agreement between Croft Photography and all parties listed below for the use of photographic services. It is to be understood that all products produced by Croft Photography are the property of Croft Photography and can be used for any reason thought proper such as advertising or display.
2. In the unlikely event that all photographs are lost, destroyed, damaged, or stolen for reasons beyond that of Croft Photography's control, Croft Photography will return any and all payments to compensate the loss. A partial reimbursement will be only made if only some of the photographs are lost, destroyed, damaged, or stolen. Reimbursement will be prorated based on how many photographs are lost and what package was chosen.
3. Upon signing this contract, both parties agree to a set time and date. For this reason, all deposits are non-refundable under any circumstances.
4. For the sum of _____ dollars ($_____), plus 6% PA sales tax, Croft Photography agrees to provide photographic services on the date provided below for Package ____ selected by the contracting party. If package is custom, please include terms on back.
5. Selections for all albums included in contracted package must be submitted to us not later than six months after the wedding date for us to complete your order. There will be a late charge of $100.00 for selections submitted after due date. Your due date for album completions is _____.
6. It is requested that we be included when making dining arrangements at the reception. It is necessary to be seated in the same room as the bride and groom so we may be available for candid photography. If we are not included in dining arrangements, we reserve the right to leave your reception for dinner, and return when we are finished.
7. Contracting party agrees to the following payment plan:
 - $_____ Deposit at time of this agreement
 - $_____ (50% of amount owed) due by _____ (30 days prior to wedding date)
 - $_____ (Final amount still owed) due by _____ (2 wks prior to wedding date)
